For Immediate Release

Contact: Jessica Turner
Lovell Communications Inc.
(615) 297-7766
jessica@lovell.com

Wilson Hired As Controller for CapStar Bank

(NASHVILLE, Tenn.) July 27, 2009 – Susan C. Wilson has joined CapStar Bank as Controller for the organization. She will be responsible for supervising the bank's accounting and financial reporting and will oversee the implementation and monitoring of internal controls.

Wilson has more than 25 years of banking experience and since 2000 has served as Vice President and Chief Financial Accounting Officer for Bank of the South, now Pinnacle Financial Partners. Prior to that position, she was the Assistant Vice President and Compliance Officer for First Bank & Trust.

"Susan's vast financial knowledge will be a tremendous asset to CapStar," said Claire W. Tucker, bank president and chief executive officer. "Her long career is full of impressive accomplishments, and her track record of proven leadership makes her a perfect match for this organization."

Wilson has attended the American Bankers Association Graduate School of Compliance Management, the American Bankers Association Truth in Lending National Compliance School and the American Bankers Association National Compliance School. She is a member of Friends of Vanderbilt Children's Hospital and serves on the board of Gladeville United Methodist Church. Wilson graduated Cum Laude from Middle Tennessee State University in Murfreesboro.

When CapStar Bank was founded in 2008, it raised $88 million in start-up capital, which is believed to make it the highest capitalized start-up bank in Tennessee history. CapStar focuses on the areas of small to middle market businesses, commercial real estate and private banking. For more information about CapStar, please visit www.CapStarBank.com.

# #