CapStar Bank Announces Sumner County Advisory Board and Grand Opening Dates

Systems conversion completed, CapStar's merger with American Security Bank & Trust brings new talent and broadens CapStar's portfolio

NASHVILLE, TN- September 17, 2012. Today marks the completion of the systems conversion of Sumner County's American Security Bank & Trust with CapStar Bank. New signage has been installed, and all customers are now operating on CapStar's products. In addition to the systems conversion, the Hendersonville and Gallatin branches are now open 8:30 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, including the lobby and drive-through teller windows. Both the Brentwood and Green Hills branches in the original CapStar footprint will also be open from 8:30 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. weekdays.

CapStar will host two receptions open to the public the first week of October. On Monday, October 1, the Hendersonville office at 101 Springhouse Court will have a reception and ribbon-cutting from 9:00 until 11:00 a.m. with CapStar President and CEO Claire Tucker and members of the Hendersonville Chamber of Commerce.

On Wednesday, October 3, the Gallatin office at 885 Greenlea Boulevard, will host a reception and ribbon-cutting from 9:30 until 11:30 with Tucker and members of the Gallatin Chamber of Commerce.

The public is invited to attend either or both events.

Respected business leaders from across the Gallatin and Hendersonville communities have been recruited to serve on a Sumner County advisory board. Jay Roney, Senior Vice President of Commercial Lending, said, "These board members will be able to help CapStar identify opportunities in the local market that will aid in the economic development of Sumner County." The board will convene for the first time on Tuesday, September 25, at noon at the Hendersonville office (101 Springhouse Court).
